

AFAP

"Soldiers and Families
Make It Happen"

Community Forum - Issue Sheet

On 26 Mar 03, Army Community Service will conduct their annual Community Forum. Now is your opportunity to submit your issue(s) that affect the readiness and well-being of the Army. To be accepted into the AFAP program, posed issues must meet the following criteria: (1) issue must have Army wide implications and be within the ability of Army installation/regional commands, MACOM, and HQ DA to resolve; (2) issues must have an attainable outcome; and (3) issue must have a measurable end product.

Please check your issue category:

Child Care __ Consumer Services __ Dental Care __ Education __ Employment __ Entitlements __
Family Support __ Force Support __ Housing __ Leadership __ Medical __ Relocation __ Volunteers __
Youth __

Issue Title: (short, simple and concise) _____

Issue Scope: (current situation; facts; impact of issue) _____

Recommendations: (clear, concise statement of what needs to be done) _____

Issues must be returned to: Army Community Service, 11 Hap Arnold Blvd., Tobyhanna, PA 18466-5044 or faxed to (570) 895-7419 no later than 14 Mar 03. If you have any questions, please call (570) 895-7069.

Visit our website at: www.tobyhanna.army.mil - click on Army Community Service and look for the AFAP link.